It is most important that you take out comprehensive travel insurance.

Visa

A tourist Visa can be obtained at Kathmandu Airport on Arrival. Please ensure that you carry a valid Passport or Voter ID in case of Indian nationality. Any other ID proof will not be accepted.

Health

Take extra care with hand-washing and personal hygiene to avoid contagious illnesses. Drink only bottled water that is sealed and free of visible contaminants.

See your travel medical doctor some weeks before leaving home. Take adequate supply of any medicines you have been prescribed. Antibiotics in case of illness with Delhi Belly e.g. Ciprofloxacin. Antibiotic in case of respiratory infection e.g. Azithromycin

Avoid dust and dusty areas. Cover your nose and mouth if exposed to dust. Avoid excess exposure to the sun. Drink plenty of water. Do not walk barefoot. Food quality is generally poor outside the premises so avoid unnecessary travel whilst in Nepal. In case you do eat outside the premises avoid tap water, drinks with ice, peeled fruit and salads. Its better to have boiled water or hot drinks and freshly cooked hot food.

Avoid mosquito bites by using personal insect repellants containing 15-20% DEET and a low irritant knockdown aerosol spray for your room if needed.

Bring flashlight, hat, insect repellent for skin, insect spray for rooms, first-aid kit, field seat, lip balm, sunglasses, sun block, acidophilus, vitamins, personal hygiene supplies, adequate supplies of any medications you take regularly, and an extra pair of glasses.
